

Classroom Code of Ethics: Worksheet

- 1 No Plagiarism
  - 2 Adhere to the CU honor code
  - 3 Encourage teamwork and mutual effort
  - 4 Treat ideas with equal respect
  - 1 Give proper credit where it's due
- Strive for the highest quality work
- 4 Treat everybody fairly regardless of all that stuff
  - 1 No plagiarism
  - 5 No defamation of name
- No false advertising
- 5 Responsible for our product: its problems and successes
  - 5 Complete project in given time
  - 5 Build website with NGACO's best interests in mind: check new ideas with them before implementation
  - 5 Personal applicant info will be confidential and secure
  - 2 Abide by CU's student honor code
- Complete assignments as required
- Attend class
- Abide by the classroom rules in the syllabus
- 3 Everybody should try to contribute equally when working in groups
  - 3 Treat other with respect, including ideas, opinions and backgrounds
- Meet deadlines
- Keep an open mind
- Communicate openly
- 1 Give credit where credit is due
- No negative reinforcement
- Offer assistance when needed
- Bring something to contribute
- Hold the classes well being in mind
- 2 Adhere to the CU Honor Code

- 4 Don't speak out of turn, gives others the chance to complete their thought without interrupting

- 1 Don't plagiarize

Speak your mind, there are no stupid comments or questions

Don't disrespect the ideas of others

- 4 Debate in a respectful manner

Fair- Judgment not dependent upon ethnicity, gender, religion.

- 4 Respectful behavior --"Golden rule"

Post only accurate and true information

- 1 Don't plagiarize

- 3 Contribute to the group, do your part. (Come prepared, on time)

Be safe (eg don't start fire in the classroom)

- 5 Don't distribute information that is meant to remain private to the class.

Respect authority figures

Follow through with commitments

Don't steal the computers or other CU property

- 1 Give credit where credit is due

- Color code

- Bold, italics, different fonts

- Numbers – marginalia

- Sort

- 1 Don't plagiarize
  - 1 Don't plagiarize
  - 1 No Plagiarism
  - 1 Give proper credit where it's due
  - 1 Give credit where credit is due
  - 1 No plagiarism
  - 1 Give credit where credit is due
  - 2 Adhere to the CU honor code
  - 2 Adhere to the CU Honor Code
  - 2 Abide by CU's student honor code
  - 3 Encourage teamwork and mutual effort
  - 3 Treat other with respect, including ideas, opinions and backgrounds
  - 3 Everybody should try to contribute equally when working in groups
  - 3 Contribute to the group, do your part. (Come prepared, on time)
  - 4 Debate in a respectful manner
  - 4 Treat everybody fairly regardless of all that stuff
  - 4 Respectful behavior –“Golden rule”
  - 4 Don't speak out of turn, gives others the chance to complete their thought without interrupting
  - 4 Treat ideas with equal respect
  - 5 Build website with NGACO's best interests in mind: check new ideas with them before implementation
  - 5 Personal applicant info will be confidential and secure
  - 5 Don't distribute information that is meant to remain private to the class.
  - 5 Responsible for our product: its problems and successes
  - 5 No defamation of name
  - 5 Complete project in given time
- Abide by the classroom rules in the syllabus
- Attend class
- Be safe (eg don't start fire in the classroom)
- Bring something to contribute
- Communicate openly
- Complete assignments as required
- Don't steal the computers or other CU property
- Don't disrespect the ideas of others
- Fair- Judgment not dependent upon ethnicity, gender, religion.
- Follow through with commitments
- Hold the classes well being in mind
- Keep an open mind

- Meet deadlines
- No false advertising
- No negative reinforcement
- Offer assistance when needed
- Post only accurate and true information
- Respect authority figures
- Speak your mind, there are no stupid comments or questions
- Strive for the highest quality work